

Sayings of Imam Hussain

- If you don't believe in any religion and don't fear the Resurrection Day, at least be free in this world.
- Avoid oppressing the one who does not have any supporter against you, other than the Almighty God.
- One who pursues a goal through sinful ways, will ironically distance himself from that goal, and will approach what he was afraid of.
- He who has You has everything; and he who has deprived himself of You is the poorest in the world. Loser is the one who chooses and is content with anyone or anything other than You.
- Wisdom will not be complete except by following the truth.
- The most generous person is the one who offers help to those who do not expect him to help.
- To me, death is nothing but happiness and living under tyrants nothing but living in a hell.
- The most merciful person is the one who forgives when he is able to revenge.
- Those who seek to win God's favor and satisfaction, no matter if it evokes people's wrath, God will make them dispense with people. But those who win contentment of people at the cost of enraging God, the Almighty will make them dependent upon people.
- When a poor man begs for your help, his pride is hurt. Then you don't deal another blow to his pride by letting him down.
- Your neighbours are like your relatives.
- Death with dignity is better than life with humiliation.
- Tolerance is man's ornament, keeping promises is a sign of nobility, and bonding with others is a grace.
- You deserve Paradise, don't sell yourself for anything less. Whoever is content to the worldly pleasures, has sufficed to something base and low.
- Among the signs of a learned man is criticising his own words and being informed of various viewpoints.
- Don't you see that the right is not conveyed and the wrong is not prohibited. Let believers wish to die and righteously meet their God.
